

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Mill Announce Mary Ellen's Betrothal to Topper Smith

MISS MARY ELLEN MILL
... Sets November Date

An announcement of interest throughout the southland is being made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Mill, 1525 Via Montemar, Palos Verdes. Estates of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ellen to Topper Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Smith of Long Beach.

The wedding will be solemnized Nov. 9 at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Long Beach. Miss Mill was graduated from the Redondo Union High for two years. She is now a student at Long Beach State College where she is a home economics major with an education secondary.

The bride-elect's father is comptroller and assistant secretary of the National Supply Co. in Torrance. He has been affiliated with the local firm since 1919.

Mr. Smith is a graduate of Long Beach State College. He is a member of the Acacia fraternity and last year taught speech and journalism at North High School. Next year he will be journalism instructor at the new Milikan High School in Long Beach.

The future bridegroom has sung with several South Bay choral groups and is now choir director at the Los Altos Methodist Church.

RESORT WEEK END

Spending the week end at Idyllwild were Mrs. W. C. Howell and daughter, Pamela, and Mrs. D. Capps and children Stephanie and Melinda.

FAMILY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Prout and daughters Susan and Barbara, 1008 Eriel St., recently returned from a three weeks vacation. They went to Gary, Ind., where they were guests of Mrs. Prout's sister; from there they went to northern Michigan where they visited their parents. On the return trip they visited friends in Minneapolis, Yellowstone Park and their former home, Provo, Utah.

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

JULY 12, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Nine

MRS. FRED CARLSON
... Takes Wedding Vows

MRS. JOSEPH NETTER
... Lovely Bride

Sanderson-Carlson Names are Linked in Beautiful Ceremony

First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro was beautifully decorated with bouquets of white gladioli with aisle pews marked with bows of satin ribbon and fern when Miss Darlene Sanderson became the bride of Fred Carlsson in a double-ring ceremony which took place Sunday afternoon, July 8, at 2 o'clock.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sanderson of 24117 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlsson of 2220 W. 248th St., Lomita.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was regal in a white Chantilly lace and tulle gown fashioned with a scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a coronet of tulle ornamented with crystal beads and sequins. She carried a white orchid with lilies of the valley and stephanotis. The bride carried an English white lace handkerchief 100 years old.

Preceding the bride to the altar, between rows of white satin ribbon, were Marilyn Gilman as maid of honor in a princess styled gown of pink, polished cotton worn with matching hat trimmed with tulle; Mrs. Pat Paddelford, Miss Helen Trampus and Miss Sandra Carlson, bridesmaids in identical gowns of blue polished cotton in the princess design. They all wore matching hats trimmed with tulle and carried cascades of blue carnations.

Scattering pink rose petals in the path of the bride was Susan Zuanich in a full length frack of pink nylon. Lighting (Continued on Page Ten)

Mary Helen Skipper Becomes Mrs. Joseph Netter June 30

Miss Mary Helen Skipper, on the arm of her uncle, Frank Skipper Sr., came to the altar in the Nativity Catholic Church at 11 o'clock on Saturday, June 30, for her wedding to Joseph P. Netter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Netter, 23028 S. Meyer St.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Skipper, 918 Beech Ave., was radiant in her wedding gown of white tulle over taffeta. She had a high neckline with a small collar, long sleeves and the full skirt was ornamented with net ruffles. Her shoulder length veil was held by a pearl halo, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding white orchids.

Preceding the bride to the altar was her honor attendant Miss Barbara Fountain wearing a pale green lace and net gown and carrying pink carnations.

John McQuire was best man and the 125 wedding guests were seated by Ray Smith and

Anthony Couplides. The Rev. Thomas Glynn conducted the marriage ceremony during which John Skipper sang "On This Day," and the communion song. Mrs. M. McConlogue was the organist.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The couple spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas and are now at home at 23435 Anchor Ave., Avalon Village.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School last month where she was a member of the Delta sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from Narbonne High School in June.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Miss Barbara Cracknell entertained recently with a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Marlene Schildmeyer, bride-elect of John Deere at her home, 25607 Lucille Ave., Lomita.

At the cleverly arranged party, guests were asked when arriving to sign a cook book which was later presented to the bride-elect. Gifts were presented to the honoree in one of the gifts, a laundry cart.

Dainty refreshments were served from a table centered with a decorated cake inscribed with the names of the couple. Pink carnations and pink candles were also used in the center arrangement. Guests included Mmes. Emille Boyd, Marye Hardy, Mary Bell, Victoria Nelson, Alma Kubshita, Lois Schildmeyer, Peggy DeFrance, B. Cracknell, Ruth Schildmeyer, Charlotte

Proberts Hosts at Bon-Voyage

A colorful travel theme was used by Mr. and Mrs. George Probert, 1428, El Prado, last Saturday evening when they entertained at a bon voyage party for Mr. and Mrs. E. Robert Burns of Palos Verdes, who leave next Sunday for Europe where they will spend five months.

A barbecue supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Burns were each presented a gift from the group.

Sharing the fun with the hosts and honor guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Bert Stone, Charles T. Rippey, Carl Warner, Dean Sears, Jack Barrington, Joe Klink, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Wood, Mrs. J. W. Post and Mrs. Henry Ulbright.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns will leave by plane Sunday for London. From there they will fly to Belgium and on to the Scandinavian countries where they will spend three months. Their itinerary then includes Germany, Austria, Switzerland and France. From Paris they will fly to Turkey to visit the Holy Land.

Their next interesting experience will be a Mediterranean cruise aboard the Italian liner Vulcania. After this they will go to Lisbon, Portugal, where they will embark for New York, scheduled to arrive there Dec. 2.

Smith-Zappitelli Nuptials Recited At St. Catherine's

In her wedding gown of rosepoint lace over tulle and satin, Miss Marlene Margaret Smith was a lovely bride as she was escorted by her father to the altar in St. Catherine Labouré Catholic Church last Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. She made her wedding promises to Michael Nicholas Zappitelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michele Zappitelli of Inglewood.

The wedding gown was detailed with a V neckline and short sleeves. Ruffles and lace in bustle effect formed the back of the skirt which fell into a chapel train. She wore matching lace mitts. Pleated tulle and pearls held her fingertip bridal illusion veil and she carried two white orchids and stephanotis atop a white prayerbook.

Miss Sallie Sanquinet was the maid of honor. Her gown was of orchid embroidered nylon over taffeta and she carried a cascade of orchid carnations.

Misses Betty Hargroves, Emma Valencia, Bonnie Lee and Marian Lytle formed the bridesmaid contingent. Rainbow colors were used in their gowns, Miss Hargroves in yellow embroidered nylon over taffeta, Miss Valencia in turquoise, Miss Lee in pink and Miss Lytle in sea green. Each carried a carnation cascade to match her gown.

In floor length white nylon gowns over orchid, Cyndi Smith and Margaret Clarke served as flower girls. Henry Villa and Brian Donnelly carried the rings to the altar.

Wayne Paul was best man and ushers were Jack Gleason, Ralph Grippo, Charles Brown and Bill Engle. The Rev. Father Hollinger officiated at the vow exchange and the nuptial mass.

After the wedding a reception was held in the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, aunt and uncle of the bride, on Hazel St. in Inglewood. Miss Candy

Clarke registered the guests. The couple are honeymooning in Santa Maria and upon their return will be at home at 431 E. Hazel, Inglewood.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith, 18719 Cerise is a graduate of Washington High School and the bridegroom was graduated from Mt. Carmel High. They both attended El Camino College.

Bridal Party

Miss Maureen McGarry whose wedding to Lawrence Stone will be a beautiful event of Sept. 1 at the Nativity Catholic Church was complimented at another pre-nuptial party on July 1. Mrs. Ray N. Olson was hostess at the miscellaneous shower in the Lomita Pines home of her mother, Mrs. Sylvan Smith.

Games were played with Mmes. Claude Greasey, Bob Gallagher, Jim Loughrey, John Salazar and Howard Shirley carrying away the prizes.

The bride-elect was presented with many useful gifts for her future home. Refreshments were served from a decorated table.

Other guests present at the party were Mmes. Marcel Demont, Stephen Dodge, Melvin Foncannon, David McDonnell, Edward McGarry and Misses Ann McGarry and Faye Jean Smith.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mmes. Olaf Baker, Carroll Coykendall, Tom Judge, Paulus Stone and Miss Sandra Stone.

MRS. MICHAEL N. ZAPPITELLI
... On Honeymoon

MRS. CHARLES VOLLMER
... Saturday Bride

MRS. ROBERT THOMAS ROSSO
... Midsummer Bride